“About a Business Trip”

Ms. Lovett
Oh, hi Mr. Jobs! What is it?

Mr. Jobs
Hey, how are you doing Ms. Lovett? I have something important to tell you.

Mr. Jobs
Hey, how are you doing Ms. Lovett? I have something important to tell you.

Ms. Lovett
We’re inviting you to visit our country next month. We’ll have a meeting with our CEO Mr. Hanes and he wants you to discuss your plan for next year and do other business-related activities. This trip is scheduled for a week.

Ms. Lovett
Does it include conferences? Exhibitions perhaps?

Mr. Jobs
Certainly. You don’t have to worry about all the expenses. If you have questions, you may call me at this number 1-447-332-3334.

Ms. Lovett
I am glad to hear that!

Mr. Jobs
Sounds like you are excited. Well, see you next month.

Ms. Lovett
Yeah! Thanks, Mr. Jobs.

“Business Trip Plan”

Jane
Hey, How are you doing?

Mark
I am hyped up about my business trip next week.

Jane
First time, right?

Mark
Yeah, and I have my travel documents prepared. I also have enough currency from my destination country to pay for small expenses.

Jane
Have you made all your travel arrangements?

Mark
Yes! Thanks. But I have a minor disagreement with my luggage. It’s small!

Jane
Do you have to bring a lot of stuff? What’s the maximum luggage weight?

Mark
Twenty-five kilos. I’m pretty sure it won’t exceed the weight limit. Let’s have lunch together and I’ll tell you more about my business trip plans.
